

Contract number:

 Changing or adding a policyowner must always be done with a representative.

Important information

If you only want to designate or change beneficiaries, please use the Designation or Change of Beneficiary (17073E) form.

If the requested change also results in a change in payor, please provide new payment instructions by completing section H - Pre-authorized debit agreement (PAD) - Payor's authorization.

- 1- For a change or addition of a policyowner, a new beneficiary designation must be made, unless your contract includes a specific clause on this subject. Even if the beneficiaries are not changing, they must be designated again.
- 2- If beneficiaries are not designated when changing policyowners and the new policyowner is not an insured, the new beneficiary will automatically be the new designated policyowner.
- 3- If beneficiaries are not designated when changing policyowners and the new policyowner is also the insured, the new beneficiaries will also automatically be the heirs of the new designated policyowner.
- 4- If the new policyowner wants to keep the same beneficiaries, they must designate the beneficiaries again in the appropriate part of section C - Designation or change of beneficiary.
- 5- If the previous policyowner had additional disability, death or job loss coverages, such coverages will be terminated when the policyowner is changed.
- 6- If you are requesting a policyowner change as a result of a divorce or separation judgment, please attach a copy of the judgment.
- 7- The new policyowner can get a copy of the contract from the previous policyowner or by requesting one from Desjardins Insurance.
